

BIO

Kayla Taylor

Kayla Taylor is a native of Arcadia, Louisiana. She is an alumna of Grambling State University, where she earned her Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice.

Kayla has a heart for children, especially those who come from abusive & neglectful backgrounds, and she has carried that passion into her career. As such, she has 25 years of experience in the Social Services field (Foster Care & Adoption), where she served as a Program Manager before being promoted to Program Director at Houston Achievement Place.

Additionally, she is a Licensed Child Placing Agency Administrator (LCPAA) and currently serves as a Professional Level Service Provider for a General Residential Operation.

Kayla is a devoted wife of 33 years and a loving mother to two young adult children.